

Union Tractor Ltd. considers the safety of its employees, contractors, customers, vendors and the general public of the utmost importance; therefore, we will strive for the provision of safe working conditions and the promotion of safety minded attitudes.

We are committed to providing and maintaining a healthy and safe working environment in accordance with industry standards and in compliance with legislative requirements and integrate health and safety considerations into all business decisions.

Dave McAlpine
President & CEO